Maharashtra's Namu Maharojgar Fair mandated to EXHICON

The scale of this endeavour is nothing short of remarkable, with over two lakh square feet of Pillar less German Hangars, for creating a full fledged Exhibition Arena is being swiftly erected to house the event. Additionally, a sprawling conference area capable of accommodating 10,000 attendees and over 600 Booths is being constructed for Exhibitors to showcase employment opportunities is being assembled, the event will open on the 29th Feb for two days in Thane, Maharashtra.

Despite the short notice given to EXHICON, the company exudes confidence in its ability to deliver, committing to construct and manage the entire event within just over five days. Leveraging their expertise in creating large-format event infrastructure on short notices.

In an unprecedented move, Govt. of Maharashtra's has unveiled plans for the Namu Maharojgar employment fair, with the aim of revitalizing the job market in the Konkan division, this ambitious initiative seeks to connect job seekers with prospective employers, paving the way for a brighter future for countless individuals.
